

2025 Transplant Infectious Diseases Day
National Convention Centre Canberra
Preliminary Program

Friday 20th June 2025

Block 1: The nuts and bolts of the donation process in Australia

09:00 - 10:40

09:00-09:05 Welcome
09:05-09:25 Overview of the organ donation process relevant to infectious diseases
09:25-09:45 The electronic donor record
09:45-10:05 The pitfalls that microbiology lab wants you to know about testing of donors
10:05-10:40 Interactive session: when donor infection testing impacts the decision to accept a donor

10:40-11:10

Morning Tea

Block 2: : The donor: Specific challenging scenarios and avoiding missed opportunities

11:10-12:40

11:10-11:40 Blood borne viruses and organ donation, where are we in 2025?
11:40-12:00 Infection risks specific to potential Australian organ donors
12:00-12:40 Panel discussion: donors with infectious syndromes at time of donation

12:40-13:40

Lunch

Block 3: Recipient: the interplay between organ transplant and infections

13:40-15:40

13:40-14:00 How immunosuppressed is my patient? What is their infection risk?
14:00-15:00 Rapid fire updates
15:00-15:40 Panel discussion: Recipients with active infections at the time of transplant/listing

15:40-16:10

Afternoon Tea

Block 4: Bringing it all together

16:10-17:00

16:10-16:30 The ANZDATA experience
16:30-16:50 Panel discussion: Where to from here? How do we design a system to collect data in Australia and NZ on donor and recipient infections?
16:50-17:00 Wrap up and thanks

17:00-19:00

Social function: Drinks and canapes at the venue